January 2022

President's Message

I hope everyone enjoyed the holidays with friends and loved ones. We enjoyed a chilly, festive evening, gathering with other KFRW members, for our Christmas Party, on Monday, December 13, hosted by Tracy and Dusty Boyce at their lovely home. This year we had plenty of desserts! But it wouldn't be the holidays without lots of sweets, right? Oh, and door prize winners were: Abby McGehee and Mac McNeill (Politically Incorrect posters) and Karen and Kenny Knox (Keep America Great 2020 Trump coin).

The KFRW Executive Committee voted and sent $1,000 to the Wakulla Veteran of Foreign Wars Post 4538 for their "Raise the Roof" fundraiser with proceeds from the 2021 American Valor Dinner.

As a new year begins—a time to reflect—I want to personally thank each of you for attending monthly meetings and supporting the KFRW efforts and events in 2021. Thank you so much!

Standing up for what you believe in is not an easy thing to do. It takes courage, conviction and strength to speak up for the American values all of us hold dear. In today's culture where one often is cancelled and/or censored quickly, those qualities are sometimes hard to maintain. And even the strongest and most committed among us may sometimes wonder if it's worth it.

My answer to you is a resounding "Yes!" And I want to remind you that you are not alone. Our time to shape the future as KFRW women (and men) is here, and together we can stand up taller, speak out louder, and have a greater impact than going it alone. I hope you know your voice matters and liberty-loving women are making a real difference in our homes, our schools, our communities, our states, and our nation.

Our next meeting is January 24, 2022, the 4th Monday, which is our Annual Meeting as we kick off 2022, so please make plans now to attend. Voting members will approve the budget and changes to our bylaws, which we've not done since our inception. An email will be sent on January 13 with the draft of the budget and bylaws in order for you to review both prior to the meeting. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to let me know. We will have committee reports as each looks ahead at 2022. And you do know, right? that 2022 is a very important year—be a part of it!

Here's to 2022, but still not forgetting Nov. 3, 2020!

KFRW Committee Updates

All Committee Chairs: Please e-mail monthly updates to Lynn S. by Sunday, prior to monthly meeting, so updates can be shared with all club members via email, newsletter, etc. Thank you!

For more info on committees and purpose of each, refer to each on the KFRW website.

Community Outreach – Gretchen Wallace continues her Civics class for homeschoolers on January 10 with the revolutionary war and establishment of the U.S. of America, which includes in depth studies of foundational documents and prominent events and the founders. Contact Gretchen on how you can volunteer to help her on community projects.

Election Integrity – Janis Morrow met with the new Supervisor of Elections, Tyler McNeill, and Lee Davis, Chief Deputy SOE, and got answers to many questions about the election process. Watch for additional information!

Events & Fundraising – Watch for the KFRW 2022 Calendar (to be emailed) and make note of upcoming events and fundraising opportunities to support KFRW in 2022.

Media – Note: If you take photos at events, please forward via text or e-mail to Lynn Stafford ASAP. 😊

The expectation is all members will help at club events, as available, when called upon by the committees.
